

FOOD + DRINK

50 States of Cocktails: Where to Drink (With a View) Across America This Summer

Nothing has us pining more for a refreshing drink than the long, hot days of August. Thankfully, America is absolutely brimming with fabulous cocktail dens, hometown breweries, and rooftop bars where you can toast the season in style. From an open-air deck on a Delaware beach to a swanky loft in New Orleans, here are 50 spots (and 50 drinks) to try this summer in each state.

By Laura Itzkowitz & Stefanie Waldek August 15, 2018

- 19 North Carolina: The Roof at the Durham Hotel
- 20 Arkansas: The Preacher's Son, Bentonville
- 21 Louisiana: Hot Tin, New Orleans
- 22 Virginia: Q Rooftop Bar, Richmond
- 23 Alabama: Carrigan's Public House, Birmingham
- 24 Washington: Canon, Seattle
- 25 Idaho: 315 Martinis and Tapas, Coeur d'Alene
- 26 Montana: Tiki Bar at the Lodge at Whitefish Lake
- 27 Oregon: Departure Restaurant and Lounge, Portland
- 28 Wyoming: The Deck @ Piste, Jackson Hole
- 29 Alaska: Crow's Nest, Anchorage
- 30 Nevada: Mandarin Bar, Las Vegas
- 31 New Mexico: Bell

19

North Carolina: The Roof at the Durham Hotel

Sleek midcentury vibes prevail at the Durham Hotel, a 53-room boutique hotel in a 1969 former bank building downtown. For alfresco cocktails, look no further than the hotel's 3,000-square-foot roof deck, which includes an indoor bar with covered seating in addition to its open-air space. Wherever you choose to hold court, you can't go wrong with the hotel's namesake cocktail, which blends rum, cognac, port, Benedictine, and Angostura bitters.

See All Hotels in North Carolina